REPUBLICANS FOR PROTECTION.
Chicago, June 21.—The draft of the Republican platform was finished at midnight. It declares emphatically for protection but expresses a willingness to change the schedule when conditions demand it, along protectionist lines. A mild reciprocity clause was incorporated.

CONTESTING DELEGATIONS.
Chicago, June 21.—The La Follette faction of Wisconsin has abandoned its contest for seats, alleging that the Committee on Credentials is prejudiced and that some of its members have been "approached." The latter charge the committee strongly resents.

SLOCUM DISASTER.
Washington, June 21.—A Federal Commission has been appointed to investigate the Slocum disaster.

New York, June 21.—One hundred and twelve bodies were recovered yesterday from the wreck of the General Slocum. The total recovered is 845 with 300 missing.

NEWS FROM BESIEGED.

Chefoo, June 21.—Fuller, an American war correspondent imprisoned at Port Arthur, has been released. He entered Port Arthur and was detained for five days. He says the place is full of life and gaiety, that there is an abundance of supplies, that the Russian warships are all repaired and the blockade ineffective. Fuller was correspondent for the Indianapolis News.

SOAP FROM FRUIT OF TREE.

The Leicester Hosiery Trade Journal contains an account of an enterprise in Algeria to manufacture natural soap on a large scale from a tree known as "Sapindus utilis." This plant, which has long been known in Japan, China, and India, bears a fruit of about the size of a horse-chestnut, smooth and round. The color varies from a yellowish green to brown. The inner part is of a dark color and has an oily kernel. The tree bears fruit in its sixth year and yields from 55 to 220 pounds of fruit, which can easily be harvested in the fall. By using water or alcohol the saponaceous ingredient of the fruit is extracted. The cost of production is said to be small and the soap, on account of possessing no alkaline qualities, is claimed to be superior to the ordinary soap of commerce.—Frank W. Mahlin, Consul, Nottingham, England, May 4, 1904.

New York, June 2.—A special from Mineola, Long Island, says: "A woman about 40 years of age, dressed in black with a black veil over her face, entered the Surrogate's court this afternoon and asked to see Surrogate Robert Seabury. Chief Clerk Downing said the Surrogate was on the bench and asked the nature of her business. She replied that she wished to see the Surrogate regarding her claim against the estate of William C. Whitney, former Secretary of the Navy.

"I am Mr. Whitney's widow," she declared, "and I want to put in a claim for a share of his estate, to which I am entitled."

The woman declared she was married to Mr. Whitney on June 10, 1900, at Plainfield.

SUBMARINE BOAT TEST.

Newport, R. I., June 2.—The second day's Government trial of the submarine boat Fulton today was devoted to the firing of torpedoes while submerged and just awash.

Three torpedoes were taken on board at the torpedo station and the Fulton, accompanied by the gunboat Hist and the tug Powhatan, with the trial board on the Hist, went up the bay as far as Gould Island. Two torpedoes were fired while the Fulton was entirely under water and going at a speed of about eight knots. The boat then rose until the conning tower was in sight, when the third was discharged. The torpedoes had an average range of 1700 yards.

Danderine

GREW THIS HAIR,
AND WE CAN PROVE IT

MISS BESSIE BARTHOLOMEW, Leeders, Ind.

When the scalp throws off either dandruff or a gummy substance, it is an evidence of scalp disease, and no time should be lost in correcting it. You certainly would not hesitate to take treatment were you to look at this matter through a magnifying glass. When highly magnified it resembles a working mass of insects. These creatures absorb the nutrient or life-sap of the scalp causing the scalp to become dry and feverish, resulting in the loss of hair and finally baldness. Danderine works wonders in all such cases. It thoroughly eradicates all trace of scalp bacteria and makes the hair grow unusually long, strong and beautiful. One 15 cent bottle is enough to show you that it will do all this and even more. NOW at all druggists, three sizes, 25c., 50c. & $1.00 per bottle. KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., Chicago.
